A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR

Dear Friends and members of St. James Church, grace and peace to you in the name of the Lord who brings us all together in faith, prayer, worship and service. Amen.

'I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind.' --1 Corinthians 1.4-5

This greeting and verse from 1 Corinthians has gotten a lot of mileage from me lately, in giving thanks (and greeting cards) to those who joined us on April 8 for our dedication.

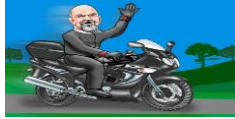

I am so very blessed, honored, and proud to be a member of this community. Thank you. This is true every day, really, but our building project and the (almost) finished product and the dedication truly highlights this for me.

And I hope we are able to appreciate the support, past, present, and future, from near and far, from people in groups like ours and not so much like us, that has been on display before, during, and after the dedication. We have truly been "enriched" in our relationship with God and one another.

'I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ.' --Philemon 6

And we have shared. And it is effective. And you have done a lot of good. All these things were true years ago, and I pray that these last few years have highlighted that for you, and for our life together in this family of faith.

Thank you to all who have worked so hard and shared so much to bring us to this moment in time. Thanks to our leaders and our visitors. Thanks to our construction crew, and also to Richard Bowen and Katie McNeal for the photos we'll see in this edition of our epistle. Thanks to all. You are a blessing from God and an answer to prayer. I Love you. Peace, Pastor Scott

Bishop Hazelwood's recent Blog

www.bishoponabike.com: What's an Evangelical?

This word might be among the most confusing for people. In recent years, the phrase evangelical christian, has come to be associated with a more conservative branch of christianity. But, it's a range.

On one hand you have someone like Tony Campolo and Shaine Claibourne who speak openly of their Christian faith and espouse care for the poor, economic justice and racial reconciliation. But, also in the evangelical christian camp is Jerry Falwell, Jr who espouses gun ownership and anti-abortion anti-choice positions.

Then you have the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, which is really a mainline denomination, rooted in a European understanding of the word evangelical. In Germany the name of the Lutheran church is the evangelical church or Evangelical Kirche. The idea is that it is the church of the Good News. Around the world, many Lutheran denominations or churches are called the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Jordan and the Holy Land, as one example.

All this can be very confusing for the average US American driving down the road when they see a sign for Our Savior Evangelical Lutheran Church. What does that mean? It depends on what that driver has recently heard, experienced or seen on TV. Most of our (ELCA) congregations in New England do not resemble anything like the evangelical congregations that are often baptist, covenant or independent. Should we shed the E word? If it's a barrier to connecting with people, then yes. It may be time to be Our Savior Lutheran Church, and let the evangelical, meaning good news, be something you live out in the actions of your congregation.

New England Synod Assembly

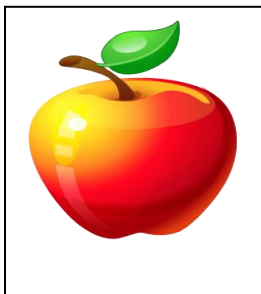

June 7-9, 2018

The 2018 New England Synod Assembly will be held at the Mass Mutual Center in Springfield, Mass. from Thursday, June 7th through Saturday, June 9th. Our 2018 theme, "Stir it Up", is what we plan to see happen across the New England Synod this coming year. We're opening ourselves to be stirred up by the Spirit. Will the Spirit of God encourage New England Lutherans to connect their faith and everyday lives? We'll be discovering how to stir up those connections so that faith may come alive in the sharing of our stories! Stir up your power, O Lord, and come!

We'll be joined by our ELCA Representative Stephen Bouman, who will guide us through the Bishop's election process that will begin Thursday afternoon shortly after the opening of assembly. The Rev. Jeff Thiemann, CEO of Portico will be with us and presenting a Keynote on Discipleship. The Rev. Carrie Smith of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Jerusalem will be preaching, as well as presenting a session on her work in partnership with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL). She'll be joined by Deacon Adrainne Gray, Communications Coordinator for the ELCJHL, In addition, we will receive greetings from Aida Mansour of the Islamic Association of Greater Hartford. This year we are planning 245's, which are two hundred and forty-five second glimpses into some of the unique ministries of our congregations, new missions and experiments.

AN APPLE A DAY

Restless leg syndrome is characterized by an uncontrollable urge to move your legs. It's usually caused by an uncomfortable sensation described as crawling, pulling, throbbing, aching or cramping. It usually happens at nighttime when you are sitting or lying. Moving or walking eases the sensation temporarily. Consistently people describe the desire to move their legs. It's most common in white, Caucasian women. This syndrome can begin at any age, but appears to worsen with aging. If the condition starts before the age of 40 there is research identifying chromosomes contributing to restless leg syndrome. This research showed that this syndrome may be due to an imbalance of dopamine, a brain chemical which sends messages to control muscle movement.

Risk factors for developing restless leg syndrome include damage to nerves in the affected extremities, iron deficiency, kidney failure, spinal cord conditions and pregnancy. Although restless leg syndrome doesn't lead to other serious conditions symptoms can be incapacitating. Many people with this disease find it difficult to fall and stay asleep.

There is no cure for restless leg syndrome. Avoid alcohol, nicotine and caffeine. Underlying conditions mentioned above should be treated. Medications to influence the dopamine receptors in the brain are reserved for people who have restless leg syndrome three nights or more per week. There are other treatments that may help such as physical therapy and massage therapy.

ELCA presiding bishop issues pastoral statement on humanitarian situation in Syria

4/14/2018 2:10:00 PM

"Give God no rest" (Isaiah 62:6-7) until that day when "the wolf and the lamb shall feed together. ... They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord" (Isaiah 65:25) (ELCA social statement, "For Peace in God's World").

In recent days we have witnessed, with additional horror, further atrocities in Syria in a conflict that has taken almost countless lives over the past seven years and displaced millions of Syrians and others.

Following the April 13 air strikes conducted by the armed forces of the United States, the United Kingdom and France, the president and the general secretary of the Lutheran World Federation issued a statement that I encourage ELCA members to read and prayerfully consider.

Our church is responding to the needs of Syrian refugees and displaced people through the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) and International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC), in coordination with ACT Alliance (formerly Action by Churches Together). The IOCC has been assisting those in need in Syria, Lebanon and Jordan to ensure food security, establish shelter, and provide better access to water and sanitation facilities, among other activities. LWF-Jordan is working with Syrian refugees and host communities in Amman, Mafraq, Irbid and in the Zaatari refugee camp, bolstering livelihoods through cash transfers and skills training in agriculture practices and improved technologies for vegetable production in home gardens to benefit malnourished children, pregnant and lactating women, and sick people. They are also providing psychosocial support, particularly among women. We plan to continue and intensify this work.

In the face of this ongoing humanitarian crisis, our nation also needs to open its arms again to receive Syrian refugees for resettlement in the United States. We will continue to work in ecumenical partnership as we pray, advocate and work to receive refugees.

Last, but not least, our government, as part of the international community, needs to redouble its efforts to work diligently for a diplomatic resolution of this conflict. As U.N. Secretary General António Guterres said earlier this weekend, "There is no military solution to the crisis. The solution must be political."

In Christ,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop, ELCA

Spring is always a busy time. At the end of March, we walked through the passion story with the annual Faith Walk. As always, our youth did a great job of beginning this Southbury tradition by reading at the first stations. And though the chilly weather kept us indoors, our children still had fun beginning their Easter with our Easter Egg Hunt, using not only the Sunday School room, but also the newly available Outreach Center!

And with the spring comes our annual spring Youth Sunday! We'll have our young people lead us in worship on May 6th. Come support our youth as they lead us in worship!

It might seem hard to believe summer is also just around the corner! And with the coming of summer comes Vacation Bible School preparations! Registration is already open and we already have kids excited to come! If you want to register your kid, and/or know someone who wants to come, register online at www.tinyurl.com/stjamesvbs2018.

We also need A LOT of volunteers to make VBS a fun, meaningful experience for all the kids who come each year. So please consider volunteering your time to make it happen! We're always looking for people who want to be teachers, helpers, behind the scene workers... there's something for everyone! Vacation Bible School will be July 30-August 3, 9a-12p each day. Then we always have a nice picnic Friday afternoon to celebrate the week.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, contact Katie McNeal (stjamesyafm@gmail.com or 412-508-4557).
